Cheryl Vessels
Human Resources Manager
Eleventh Circuit
United States Court of Appeals
56 Forsyth Street, NW
Atlanta, Georgia 30303

POSITION OVERVIEW: The Judicial Administrator is directly responsible for assisting a federal circuit court judge with an extensive variety of case-related and professional administrative tasks, as well as overseeing the management of the judge's chambers. This includes but is not limited to: Preparing reports, utilizing various computer applications and using the Internet, managing and organizing financial data, training and supervising other support staff, screening telephone calls, managing the judge's schedule of appointments and travel. Occasional travel may be required.

REQUIREMENTS: The Judicial Administrator performs administrative duties with the Court of Appeals which require the highest level of quality. Must be able to communicate professionally with a wide-ranging constituency that includes federal judges, court personnel, attorneys, and members of the community. Must possess the ability to maintain strict confidentiality of all office and judicial matters; work independently as needed; simultaneously manage multiple projects; have exceptional organizational skills; and have a strong sense of personal and professional integrity. Must be able to interact cooperatively with other staff and court personnel and be willing to engage in the entire work of the judge's chambers. Professional demeanor and flexibility is essential. Must be able to exercise tact, good judgment, and initiative on a daily basis. Ability to learn various court administrative processes. Superior knowledge of English grammar and ability to communicate effectively (orally and in writing). Must possess exceptional typing skills. Skill in using a variety of computer applications (Word, Word Perfect, Excel, Adobe Acrobat) as well as internet use and research skills. Excellent personal computer skills and desire to engage technology are essential.

QUALIFICATIONS: A minimum of seven years of experience is required, including five years in an executive office environment which required the daily exercise of tact, good judgment, professionalism, and initiative, such as might be found in law-related work or experience which involved responsibility as the principal office assistant to a supervisor who was dealing with law-related matters. Legal or paralegal training is beneficial but not required. College degree preferred.

Educational Substitutions: Education in a college or university of recognized standing may be substituted for a maximum of one year of the general experience on the basis of 30 semester (45 quarter) hours equal nine months of experience.

A bachelor's degree from a college or university of recognized standing may be substituted for two years of general experience. Preferably, such degree should have included courses in law, government, public or business administration or related fields.

Education in a legal or paralegal curriculum may be substituted for a maximum of two years of specialized experience on the basis of one full academic year (30 semester or 45 quarter hours) equals one year of experience. Less than one full year of study will be credited on a pro-rata basis.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Employees of the United States Circuit Court are considered "at-will" employees, and, as such, may be terminated with or without cause. All court employees are required to adhere to a Code of Conduct, copies of which are available upon request. The Federal Financial Reform Act requires direct deposit of federal wages for court employees. Applicants must be a United States citizen or eligible to work in the United States. All applicant information is subject to verification. The appointment is provisional and contingent upon the satisfactory completion and approval of a background investigation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: The United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit is a part of the Judicial Branch of the United States government. Although comparable to the Executive Branch (civil service) in salary, leave accrual, health benefits, life insurance benefits, and retirement benefits, generally court employees are not subject to the many statutory and regulatory provisions that govern civil service positions.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Employees of the United States Courts are entitled to the same benefits as other federal government employees. They are not part of the Civil Service system, however. Some of the benefits of federal service are:

PAID VACATIONS	From 13 to 26 days per year depending on length of federal service.
PAID HOLIDAYS	10 days per year.
SICK LEAVE	13 days per year.
HEALTH INSURANCE	Employees may participate in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHBP), and may choose from plans provided by several insurers. The government contributes up to 75% of the premium, depending on the plan selected.
DENTAL/VISION INSURANCE	Employees may participate in the Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP), which is a supplemental insurance program. Premiums are paid in full by the employee, however, the premium is deducted on a pre-tax basis.
LIFE INSURANCE	Employees may participate in the Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Program (FEGLI).
FLEXIBLE BENEFITS	Employees may participate in the Federal Judiciary Flexible Benefits Program which includes (1) a Premium Payment Plan which offers employees the choice of having health insurance premiums deducted from their pay either pre-tax or after-tax, and (2) a Flexible Spending Account which allows employees to set aside pre-tax money to cover certain health care and dependent care expenses.
LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE	Employees may participate in the Federal Judiciary Group Long-Term Care Program which covers such benefits as community based care, nursing home care, hospice care, and caregiver benefit. Spouses, parents, parents-in-law, grandparents, and grandparents-in-law are also eligible.
WITHIN-GRADE SALARY INCREASES	Within each salary classification level there are 10 "steps." Based upon performance, employees are eligible for annual step increases through step 3, increases every 2 years through step 6, and increases every 3 years through step 10.
TIME IN SERVICE	Time in service with other federal agencies and prior military service is credited for the purpose of computing employee leave and retirement benefits.
RETIREMENT	Newly-hired employees contribute 10.75% of their salary toward a retirement plan under the Federal Employees Retirement System, to which the government also contributes. Of that 10.75%, 6.2% goes to social security, 1.45% goes to Medicare, and 3.1% goes to the FERS Basic Benefit Plan. Employees may also participate in a voluntary tax-deferred Thrift Savings Plan [similar to "401(k)" plans]. Benefits are generally available upon retirement at age 60 with 20 years of service or at an earlier age with 30 years of service. Reduced benefits may be available with fewer years of service. Specific details are available upon request.
